Dear Friends,

Though we have encountered some tough times during the past months, we happily welcome Summer and hope it brings us a step closer to normality.

Like many other locales, the Hudson County Plaza does NOT permit any visitors without a face mask or face covering. Please remember that COVID-19 continues to pose a threat for our families and our communities, so be safe, wash your hands and wear a mask.

In Closing
The Clerk's Corner

It is said that in challenging times we need to rise and face the challenge. I am extremely proud of our staff here at the office for meeting those challenges head on as we continue to provide much needed public services to our Hudson County residents.

This COVID-19 pandemic can slow us down, but it won't stop us!! Not by a long shot! As we move into the next election phase, which is our 2020 General Election on November 3rd, feel confident that our office will work tirelessly to make certain all goes smoothly. We are here for you no matter what!!
